

Inspiring the Next Generation of Explorers

Sept. 11

Rocketry 101 for Grandparents and Grandchildren

This mission teams grandparents and their grandchildren on an exciting adventure in rocketry as they build and launch rockets! The mission will look back at the exciting days of Apollo and will look ahead to the future of space exploration. $50 per camper (and grandparents are free!).

Oct. 16

Mission to Mars

On this mission to the Red Planet, campers will plan a trip to Mars – how far they would travel, how long it would take, what supplies they would need and how to survive in the Martian environment. Cost is $50 per camper, including snacks and supplies.
